

Brigadier General (ret) Reimar Scherz
Conference Chairman, Behörden Spiegel

Moderation

Brigadier General (ret.) Reimar Scherz joined the German Bundeswehr in 1964 and retired in 2005. In his time of active service he held commanding, staff and special functions in national and international assignments. Many of those dealt with security policy, with command and control and with the respective information and communication systems. He attended the German General Staff College, the US Armed Forces Staff College and the NATO Defense College. In his last appointment he was Vice President of the Federal Office of the Bundeswehr for Information Management and Information Technology.

After his retirement he was Vice-President of the AFCEA Bonn Chapter for ten years and member of the Executive Committee of AFCEA International for six years. He is member of the programme and editor board of the Behoerden Spiegel Group, publishing the most important newspaper for Public and Civil Services in Germany. He has been moderator and chairman of various national and international conferences. BrigGen (ret.) Scherz is the coordinator and moderator of the Berlin Security Conference, one of the largest yearly events dealing with European Security and Defence.