

Colonel Mario Nicola Greco
NATO IS Strategic Analysis Capability

Panel B2

NATO Strategic Direction South – the Hub

Wednesday, 27th November 2019, 11:45 – 13:15 h

Colonel (Italian Army) Mario N. GRECO is a Senior Staff Officer-Strategic Analyst who is presently working at NATO HQ in the Strategic Analysis Capability. He deals, in particular, with security challenges threats and risks emanating from the NATO Strategic Direction South, with a specific focus on the Mediterranean Sea, Middle East, North Africa and Sahel, as well as on the security related aspects regarding the European Security and Regional Stability.

Before this appointment, he was employed as Policy, Plans and Cooperation branch Head within the Italian Military Representation to the NATO (and EU) Military Committee, dealing with security and defense policy issues both in the military and political dimension. He has also been dealing with other themes such as the enhancement of the network of NATO's partners, in the realm of Cooperative Security and Projecting Stability as well as the interactions with non-NATO entities including think tanks, NGO's and international organizations.

The last national assignment, before being assigned to Brussels in 2016, was Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations within the "Vittorio Veneto" Division HQ, based in Florence.