

General Paolo Ruggiero

ITA A, Deputy Supreme Allied Commander
Transformation, Norfolk, VA

Opening of the 2nd Conference day

ACT as the NATO Warfare Development Command

Wednesday, 27th November 2019, 08:40 – 09:00 h

General Paolo Ruggiero serves as the Deputy Supreme Allied Commander Transformation since July 2019.

As a Field Artillery Officer, he held several command and staff positions at both the Army and Defence General Staff in Italy, such as Armour Brigade Commander, Field Artillery Inspector General and Army Training Commander.

He also served as Assistant Army Attaché at the Italian Embassy in Washington D.C. and he was deployed at the Commander of the Joint Task Force – West Sector to South Lebanon within the UNIFIL Operation.

More recently, he was deployed to Afghanistan first as Chief of Staff and then as Deputy Commander for Transition of the NATO “Resolute Support” mission.

In his previous position he was appointed Deputy Commander NATO Land Command in Izmir.