

Carmine America

Special Advisor to the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs for Security and Defence

High-Level Debate

European Security and Regional Stability – how to maintain coherence in times of epochal transition?

Tuesday, 26th November 2019, 11:30 – 13:00 h

Mr. Carmine America is a Special Advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Italy. His office pertains to international security and defense policy.

He previously served as a Special Advisor to the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Economic Development of Italy, working on national security issues, defense industrial policy and space/aerospace national strategy.

Senior researcher specialised on transatlantic relations, former security manager, he gained a long-standing experience in Europe and United States on global security, geopolitical risk analysis, cyber threat mitigation and protection of sensitive/classified information.