

Alice Guitton

Director General for International Relations and Strategy, Ministry of the Armed Forces, France

High-Level Debate

European Security and Regional Stability – how to maintain coherence in times of epochal transition?

Tuesday, 26th November 2019, 11:30 – 13:00 h

Alice Guitton is the Director General for International Relations and Strategy. Before that, she was deputy permanent representative of France to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (2012-2015) and then ambassador and permanent representative of France to the Conference on Disarmament (2015-2018). From 2010 to 2012, she was a member of the Cabinet of the High Representative of the European Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy / Vice President of the European Commission, and then advisor to the Secretary General of European External Action Service. Alice Guitton has occupied the several functions in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, among others a Director for democratic governance.